

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

Tolland County
COLUMBIA

Amston Team Fails to Appear for Saturday Game—Dramatic Club Rehearses Play—Equal Franchise Meeting Aug. 2.

In the Willimantic news in The Bulletin of July 15 this item appeared: "A case of infantile paralysis has been reported in Westchester in the town of Columbia, a short distance from the Lebanon town line." A Colchester physician who was called in pronounced it infantile paralysis. The physician reported the case to Rowland Cobb, health officer for the town, where the case is located—about half a mile from the case in the Freeman home in Columbia, which has been previously mentioned.

Miss Harriet K. Porter has been entertaining Miss Emily Porter of Kennington and last Friday returned with her to Kennington in her friend's automobile. Both young ladies were graduated from Wellesley college last June.

The heavy showers have washed the roads badly and gave the garden vegetables another mud bath.

Amston Team Fails to Come.
There was no ball game here Saturday afternoon as the Amston team, which was booked to play the local nine failed to appear.

Occupying Hunt Cottage.
Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Seavey have closed their house in the eastern portion of the town and are at present occupying the house owned by Mr. and Mrs. Green, where they are erecting a bungalow at the lake, and doing other repair work in this vicinity.

Delegates to Ordination.
Clayton E. Hunt was the delegate from the Columbia Congregational church to attend with the pastor, Rev. Mr. Owen, the ordination of Rev. Harris Charles Smith at the South Coventry Congregational church, on Wednesday.

The rural mail carrier has experienced some difficulty in locating the proper destination of some of the mail matter which comes in this office daily for the people occupying the numerous camps and bungalows about Columbia Lake. Some mail matter should be addressed in care of some plainly designated person or camp.

Dramatic Club Entertains.
The Grange Dramatic club presented the three-act drama, "Her Haven," at Yeoman's hall Wednesday evening of last week to a full and appreciative house. This was the second presentation of the play here. About 25 dollars was the net amount realized.

Water Holes Not Needed.
Columbia Lake is full and from present indications will remain so during the season. As yet there has been no call for Uncle Horace's construction water holes in this section. Thus far there has been more rain than sunshine and much grass remains to be cut.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Isham and sons Homer and Philip left this week for a visit of several weeks with friends and relatives in Michigan. They are making the journey by automobile via Niagara Falls.

Equal Franchise Meeting.
The Women's Suffrage meeting to be held on the grounds of Mrs. Emily Dixon Welch at "Nook" by the lake next Wednesday afternoon (Aug. 2) promises to be interesting. It is understood that Miss Emily Pierson will be one of the speakers.

Rev. Elliott O. Foster and family of Essex Junction, Vt., are spending a part of their summer vacation in town occupying rooms at the residence of William Berch on Columbia Green. Mr. Foster was formerly pastor of the Congregational church in this place.

Chickens Killed Shot.
Mrs. Kate Wolf heard a commotion in one of her chicken coops Tuesday night. Investigation showed that a skunk had found its way into the coop and was evidently looking for broilers, instead he received a charge of shot.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Holbrook of East Hartford were calling on friends and relatives in town last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Utley are at the home of J. A. Ham on West street, caring for the place during the absence of Mr. Isham and family in the west.

Mr. Herbert P. Collins has been visiting friends in Hartford.

The local grange meets next Wednesday evening.

Health Officer Cobb was called Tuesday to investigate a case that might prove infantile paralysis in the western part of the town.

Invited to Suffrage Meeting.
A card announcing the Votes-for-Women meeting to be held on the lawn of Mrs. Welch next Wednesday afternoon at 3.30 with list of speakers has been sent to each family in town bearing this invitation: "You are cordially invited to attend and to bring your friends."

The speakers announced are: Dr. Valeria H. Parker of Greenwich, Mrs. Edward O. Porritt of Hartford and Mrs. A. E. Scranton Taylor of Norfolk.

which has been in Aborn's store, to the new office, in the new Town hall. The work of installing the new organ in the church is nearly completed, and the date for the dedication of the church has been set for Aug. 1.

Miss Louise Suma of Springfield, has been the guest of Mrs. John Belcher.

Miss Hester Walbridge of Old Mystic is the guest of Miss Julia Loughhead.

Miss Susan Pease of Springfield, Mass., is spending the week with Mrs. Willard Roe, of Maple street.

Mrs. Lorenzo Benley and Mrs. R. E. Frost of South Manchester spent Tuesday with Mrs. A. D. Hale.

Schoolhouse Vote Rescinded.
At the special town meeting called on Tuesday a delegate to attend the election of a new schoolhouse at the Center this fall was rescinded. The present high cost of building material and labor, as well as the fact that the tax-payers would incur much it seem advisable to postpone building until another year.

BOLTON
Local Delegate to South Coventry Ordination—Santa Farm Sold.

Rev. George Richardson of Pittsfield, Pa., supplied in the Bolton church last Sunday.

Daniel Charles N. Loomis was appointed a delegate to attend the ordination of Rev. Charles Harris Beebe in South Coventry Wednesday.

New window screens have been installed in the Bolton library.

Elmer J. Finley was in Ohio this past week.

Rev. Henry Clark Alvord of South Weymouth, Mass. and his sister, Mrs. Lois A. Crapenter, Nagatuck, with their families have moved into Judge J. White Sumner's brick house at the Center, for their summer outing.

Leaves for Michigan.
Mrs. Louis H. Seavey left Sunday for New York enroute to Indianapolis where she is to be joined by Mr. Levey and they are to attend a house party in Michigan.

Charles Sawyer has sold his farm to South Manchester purchasers, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carpenter of Westfield.

Albert Cogean of Hartford was a recent guest of Morgan Alvord.

Mrs. Parkhurst of Manchester and Mrs. Arvine of New Haven are spending some time at Mrs. Eva H. Warfield's.

William K. Sumner and daughter, Miss Dorcas Sumner of Rockville were Bolton visitors the first of the week.

Clair S. Hutchinson and family of Hartford are at the Center for the summer.

Much Hay Lost.
Farmers have lost large amounts of hay which they cut the middle of last week and the continued rains have prevented their curing consequently it has lain and rotted. The grass crop is the heaviest this year that local people have ever known so there isn't the danger of shortage.

A dance was given in the Bolton hall Wednesday evening.

HEBKON
Rt. Rev. E. C. Acheson to Preach and Administer Holy Communion Tomorrow—Outings of the Week.

Mrs. M. G. Horton, Mrs. C. E. Peniston, Mrs. Annie Gilbert and Mrs. Carrie Kelley took an automobile trip to Hartford Wednesday, with Harold Gray.

Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Douglas returned Thursday from a few days' visit in Atlantic City.

LITTLE PIMPLES ON FACE, NECK

And Hands. Became Scaly and Skin Was Sore. Ashamed to Go Out. Lasted Three Months.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"One night before retiring I was troubled with an itching and in the morning I found that my face was all broken out with little pimples, and then they came on my neck and hands. The pimples became scaly and my skin was so sore that I had to wash it with cold water to keep the pain down, and I scratched and my face became erupted. I was so red and sore I was ashamed to go outdoors at all. It lasted about three months."

"I tried—and—to no purpose. A friend told me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I did, and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and one-half a box of Cuticura Ointment I regained my complexion, and was completely healed."

IN PRACTICE 72 YEARS
Dr. Adam Miller, Now 97, to Retire When He's 100.

From the Philadelphia Record.
Dr. Adam Miller, 97 years old this year, says the heaviest meal should be eaten in the morning and the lightest at night if one desires long life.

Dr. Miller eats a grapefruit and two eggs for breakfast, a glass of milk for dinner, bread and milk for supper. He says that a large percentage of sudden deaths are caused by gases formed in the stomach from eating hearty meals before retiring.

Dr. Miller has been a practicing physician and surgeon for seventy-two years. He says he intends to retire at the age of 100. He estimates that he has made 600,000 professional calls, traveling with horse and wagon nearly 1,000,000 miles. He is a country practitioner. His books show that he has brought into the world 1,500 babies and assisted other physicians in 500 similar cases. He has never lost a mother.

Adam Miller was born May 21, 1819, south of Haver, N. Y. He attended Geneva Medical college, graduating in 1844, and later took a course at the New York College of Physicians and Surgeons. His lifelong practice has been in the village of Jordanville, Herkimer county. He was a surgeon with the Union army in the Civil war. He has been married three times, the last time at the age of 50.
